VACATION FOR NATURE LOVERS

Waking up in the morning and enjoying the tranquillity and idyll of nature, but being in the middle of the city and being able to reach everything in no time - this is exactly what is possible at the Allerpark campsite. Between the Mittellandkanal and Allersee, campers enjoy a quiet location that still offers plenty of leisure activities. As the campsite and Allerpark are definitely worth a visit, it's not just German campers who like to come here for a holiday but also many guests from other European countries.

At the nearby beach section, guests can launch boats into the water, relax and go swimming. If you want to recharge your batteries, head east and you will reach the nature reserve. If you want to do sports and be active, walk a few hundred metres to the west - to the numerous attractions of the Allerpark. And if you want to take a trip to Wolfsburg city centre, it is also within walking distance. The campsite is a paradise for children. They can swim, climb, swing and romp through the green world in the centre of Wolfsburg in a family atmosphere.

The campsite has a total of 104 pitches. 60 pitches are available for permanent campers and 44 can be used by tourists.

The two mini-hotels also offer a unique overnight experience: these are two large wooden barrels that have been converted into small hotels for guests.

A special holiday experience is guaranteed at the campsite in Wolfsburg with its central location in the middle of the idyllic Allersee shore.
