City tours for groups

Interactive puzzle fun through Cologne city centre

The tricky, morbid, pitch-black stories of black stories have become a cult favourite.

With its eventful history, imposing buildings, brilliant personalities, mystical sagas and legends, Cologne is more suitable than almost any other city for black stories.

Sehenswert has brought the black stories Cologne edition to the streets. Together with the other participants in the group, you form the "guessing people" who try to reconstruct the course of the crime by following the trail of secrets at various locations.

An entertaining guide is the game master. But beware: he can only answer with "yes" or "no"!
