Experience 90 m of freefall in a spectacular test of courage

What is the Canyon Swing? A gorge, a rope, bravery, fearlessness and a rush of adrenaline. Take this breathtaking challenge and launch yourself into the awe-inspiring chasm of the Grindelwald glacial gorge. Experience 90 m of freefall, then swing between towering rock faces at 120 km/h. Professional guides are on hand to ensure your safety.

In the mighty glacial gorge of Grindelwald, surrounded by towering rock faces, an unforgettably adrenaline-charged adventure known as the Canyon Swing awaits. Do you have the nerve to leap into the chasm from a platform 90 m above the ground? The view into the yawning gorge from the jump-off point is impressive, daunting and overwhelming, all at the same time – an emotional roller coaster. Those who have the courage can be sure of the ultimate adrenaline kick.

Once you jump, you experience 90 m of freefall and end up swinging through the narrow glacial gorge at speeds of up to 120 km/h. An incredible sensation of joy floods your body as you climb the short ladder out of the gorge on legs trembling with relief. Experience the spectacular Canyon Swing at Grindelwald: a gorge, a rope, a great deal of courage and a surge of adrenaline. Professional guides are on hand to ensure your safety. The experience can be booked with or without transport from Interlaken or Grindelwald.
