The official tourist information office in Beatenberg

The Beatenberg Tourist Information Centre in the centre of Beatenberg village is like a home away from home. Doubling as the local post office, it is a melting pot of locals and visitors alike. The tourist office's expert staff can offer you personalised advice, insiders' tips and help you find the right accommodation for your needs. You can buy Jungfrau and regional passes straight from the counter. The tourist office also provides information on local promotions and discounted guest cards in and around Beatenberg.

Highlights at the Beatenberg Tourist Information Centre
