

HERE AND NOW at Museum Ludwig. And Yesterday and Tomorrow

Exhibition

Tacita Dean

Through its recurrent HERE AND NOW series, the Museum Ludwig questions conventional ways of exhibition-making and examines its own work as an institution. The ninth project in the series, And Yesterday and Tomorrow, brings together selected contemporary and historical artworks with scientific material to explore our experiences of time and the places we occupy. Moreover, by including various disciplines, the exhibition provides a space for collective learning. This is also the Museum Ludwig's first demonstrably climate-neutral show.
