GuideProxy

Andermatt, the ideal starting point for racing bike tours and training rides.

Out and about on two wheels. If you want to get up high on two wheels, the Andermatt vacation region is just the place for you. The eight surrounding Alpine passes and diverse bike trails allow you to make the most of your bike, mountain bike or e-bike.

Conquer Alpine passes with your own muscle power and let the wind whistle around your ears as you ride down: For many passionate racing cyclists, there is no better way to indulge in their hobby. Diverse and varied landscapes, lush flowering meadows, green forests, bizarre rock formations, high alpine mountains and glaciers. Thanks to its central location, the Andermatt vacation region is an ideal starting point for racing bike tours and training rides.

The central location makes the journey to the Andermatt vacation region short and pleasant for guests from the north, south, east and west. It takes just one and a half to two hours to reach the Andermatt vacation region from Zurich and Lugano. Those arriving by car can leave the highway at Göschenen and reach Andermatt from there in ten minutes.

Rail travelers take the hourly Gotthard express train to Göschenen and change there to the Matterhorn Gotthard Bahn. The narrow-gauge railroad has regular connections to the SBB timetable and takes guests to Andermatt in ten minutes.
