Whether it's a cheerful party or a cosy dinner - the Hotel Höfli offers the right location for every occasion.

Swiss hospitality in the centre of the cantonal capital of Altdorf. The Hotel Höfli invites you to enjoy yourself. You can choose between the restaurant, the pizzeria and, weather permitting, the terrace. The romantic Bijou or the rustic Stübli are also available for larger celebrations or company events.

The small hotel with a long history. The Hotel Höfli was built 240 years ago and was one of the few buildings to survive the village fire in Altdorf in 1799. Today it houses 36 hotel rooms in three different categories. The hotel is suitable for almost everyone: Families, single travellers, couples, business travellers. Depending on the part of the hotel, the rooms do not have a lift. There are also two wheelchair-accessible rooms in the hotel. All rooms have a shower/WC and free internet access.
