Are you fascinated by mechanical watches? Are you looking for an experience that is out of the ordinary, perhaps even a watch that not everyone owns or wears on their wrist?

Lucerne is home to a very special gem for watch lovers: Chronoswiss. This independent watch company, which is proudly family-owned and consciously sets itself apart from large corporations, is based in the heart of Lucerne, at Löwenstrasse 16b. There, Chronoswiss offers the rare opportunity to discover watches and their manufacture up close - an experience you won't find anywhere else.

From the design phase to the finest machining of the dials with century-old machines and precise assembly - an enthusiastic team provides an insight into their craftsmanship. Chronoswiss' timepieces, often limited to a few pieces, can be tested and purchased directly in the atelier.
