Discover the sights of Schwyz on your own by following the information boards. Let yourself be surprised by the rich history, tradition and culture.

During your walk, eleven panels with pictures and short texts provide you with a wealth of information about important places and their history, public buildings, patrician houses, monasteries, churches and chapels. You will also learn interesting facts about festivals and customs that have a long tradition in Schwyz. The village tour starts and ends at the "Schwyz Post" bus stop at the Forum Schweizer Geschichte. Translated with DeepL.com (free version)
