Good, handmade music usually gets even better on stage - this also applies to Herr Jan's songs and so he never misses an opportunity to play his songs live at festivals, open airs or clubs together with his trio or quintet super band.

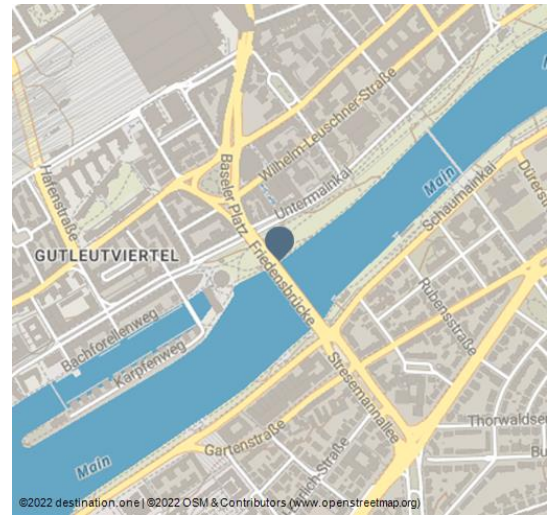

A Herr Jan concert is a colorful adventure for the whole family. Jan may work a lot in the studio as a producer, but the energy and connection that a live concert can create is simply a completely different dimension. Mr. Jan and his fellow musicians Angelino, Janis, Judith and Masl pass the instruments into each other's hands - piano, guitar, keys, drums, trumpet - in between Mr. Jan, who sings, raps, celebrates, talks about life, but also strikes a quieter note from time to time - it's all about the concert as a live experience.

"With my Superband, we take the audience on an adventure and create an atmosphere that feels good and is really fun. My concerts are real and guaranteed without playback, because everyone has a right to good live music."

His songs are played up and down on children's radio and he can be seen on the KiKa TV channel time and again. In 2022, he received the German Children's Song Award for his song "Meine 5 Minuten". With this tailwind and a new album in his luggage, he is also going on a major concert tour in 2024.
