He is the Latin pop newcomer of the past two years: with "Buenos Momentos", Juan Daniél delivered the summer hit for everyone dreaming of a vacation during the pandemic. The native of Hesse with Spanish roots and a family connection to Latin vibes looks back on a moving teenage years. With "Corazón", he then added the next hit in 2021 and reached an even larger audience. In addition, there were 2 features with well-known artists (LOONA & KAY ONE). Parallel to his success as a musician, Juan founded "Herzensfolger", a charitable organization that, together with the "A Right to School Foundation", gives orphans in Uganda a new perspective through school education and food.
