"You have made my life so incredibly enriched and positive with your songs and your words over the last few weeks. ... It's absolutely amazing!"

These words were written to Loi by a fan and that is exactly what the young singer wants to achieve with her music. To touch people's souls, to give them strength and confidence.

With over 1 million followers on her social networks, two songs with over 100 million streams and now three top 3 singles on German airplay (Gold, News and Am I Enough), Loi, from Mannheim, has already achieved a lot in her young career. She sold GOLD in Brazil with her cover of BLINDING LIGHTS, her first tour was sold out and the number of viral cover interpretations on TikTok and the like can no longer be counted on one hand. Loi's voice strikes a chord with music lovers worldwide and new fans are constantly being added. Loi's fan base had the opportunity to experience her live on her first solo tour in 2023. An experience that was later described by one of the flyctory journalists present as follows: "Her warm and powerful voice reached every corner of the sold-out hall from the very beginning. When she performed her two biggest songs to date, Gold and her version of Blinding Lights, there was hardly a person in Club Volta who wasn't touched by the vibes of her songs."

After GOLD has already got the hips of Germany, Austria, Switzerland, France, Poland, Brazil and most recently Korea dancing, Loi has once again managed to bring a new feel-good anthem to the world with her new single THE WAY I WANT IT in 2024, featuring rousing beats. The song encourages you to enjoy life to the full and let go of all inhibitions. With so much positive energy, summer can come.
