lies in recognizing that.

"Weit und blau" also stands musically for this new era, which in reality is just a new reading. The song sounds like a Balearic daydream, a wonderfully wonderful, never-ending car journey up to Tua's personal Cafe del Mar Cafe del Mar: somewhere between quiet 90s melancholy, the warmth of the nest of noisy samples and the subtle euphoria of current UK house wave. It is probably the most obviously hit song Tua has ever written.

And it shows that depth can also be found in the supposedly fleeting.
