In summer, the "Bärenzingel" is still used as an alp. The simple and authentic furnishings convey the feeling of being on holiday in history.

The hut is suitable for groups and families of up to 14 people. On the upper floor there are two small dormitories with mattresses that offer enough space for overnight stays.

Features

The kitchen and a large table are located on the lower floor. In the parlour behind it there are two tables, which leave enough space for playing cards, games, etc. A storage room and a new WC with shower are also on the lower floor.

Cutlery and crockery, hot and cold running water, electricity and firewood are provided. Heating is provided by two wood-burning stoves (one in the kitchen, which can also be used for cooking, and one in the parlour).
