Fun and adventure for your family or colleagues! Chase the clever fox, solve tricky riddles and discover the villages of Vitznau and Weggis in a playful way with Foxtrail.

Foxtrail - the most exciting scavenger hunt in Switzerland is now also available in the Weggis Vitznau region. But only the cleverest teams will be able to track down the cunning fox. To get the right clues, you have to use a military telephone to communicate with a fortress and dive into a subway that was flooded during the last storm. The bravest participants may even pull the emergency brake in a cable car. But beware, illegal use of the emergency brake will be penalised! A great team experience for families, friends or colleagues.
