Scenic route with good asphalt and very little traffic. Ideal to experience large parts of the Ammerland park landscape without stress.

For the most part, the route has very little traffic. Traffic loads are actually only recorded by agricultural traffic. Therefore, the route is also suitable for larger groups of cyclists. Gastronomic stops are possible on the north bank of the Zwischenahner Meer in Fährkroog or in the Klosterhof zu Jührden in Jührdernerfeld.
