Commerce, Industry, Economy

(c) Koelnmesse, Koelnmesse GmbH

Kind + Jugend has established itself as the trend platform for international baby and toddler outfitting. A unique variety of high-quality, innovative and sustainable products can be found here that inspire parents worldwide. The product selection of the international manufacturers ranges from baby and toddler clothing to age-appropriate toys and practical products for transport. As a trade visitor, you can order the latest trends directly and design your range attractively.

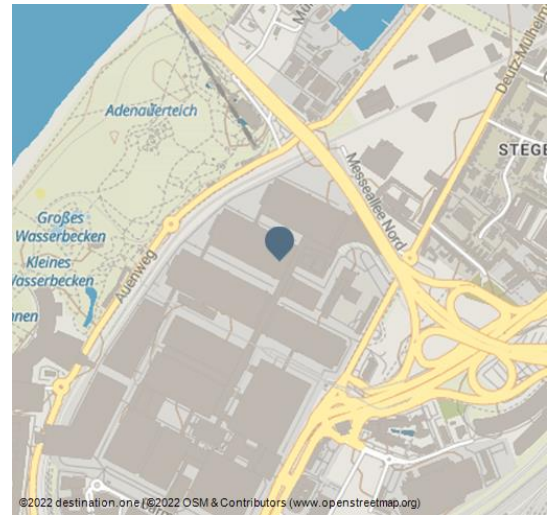

In addition to appealing designs, prams, cots, children's fashion and co. are distinguished by their quality. High-quality clothing, safe child seats and age-appropriate children's tableware thus meet the increasing demands of parents. Sustainability and environmental awareness are also a purchase criterion for more and more young parents. International exhibitors respond to this with high quality standards and the use of environmentally friendly materials. Discover the unique product variety for yourself.
