The cider culture is part of Frankfurt's attitude to life. So Frankfurt residents and their visitors celebrate their national drink with their own cider festival with a colourful stage programme.

Together with the wine press houses, a varied stage programme has been put together: From Hessian dialect to comedy, everything is on offer and, above all, lots of live music. Frankfurt specialities, delicious barbecue dishes and apple-related creations such as apple sausage, potato pancakes with apple sauce or sweet apple tarte flambée provide the right basis.
