Kölsch tasting in the Südstadt

The people, whether musicians, workers or artists, have given the Vringsveedel the variety and colour it has today. Of course, there have also been a number of recent changes in Südstadt and the neighbourhood is now an exciting contrast to the neighbouring, modern Rheinauhafen, but has nevertheless retained its very special charm.

Discover a piece of Cologne's home, unique pubs and breweries off the beaten track with a genuine Cologne city guide - entertaining, knowledgeable and with a lot of heart and humour. Maybe with a glass of Kölsch in the living rooms of Cologne's locals, we'll also get to hear some of the klaaf, the typical chatter of the regulars at the bar. And: Eating like at Mum's - where else can you find that?

Attention: Only in German
