My spontaneous thought as I enter this small but vibrant café: cuteness overload! The first thing you see is the display of exquisite, extravagant cakes and gateaux on the left, while the benches and tables by the window offer an excellent view of the bustling Venloer Straße shopping mile. My breakfast – available all day round – arrives quickly. I admit it was difficult to choose from all the delicious options on the menu. In the end, I went for the New York Bagel breakfast with a delicious, creamy cappuccino and a freshly made smoothie, and they did not disappoint. The portions are generous and lovingly arranged, and the service is fast and incredibly friendly. They also have a specials menu, which is posted on Facebook. I'll be back to try their lunches soon!
