Concerts

Caroline Alves

A unique sense of melody, self-written lyrics that sound like poetry and a distinctive voice - that's what makes Caroline Alves incomparable.

The concerts of the Biel native are an experience in which she takes the audience into her own world.

She describes artists like Eriqah Badu and Amy Winehouse or the British band Massive Attack as her great idols. Alves' musical DNA is diverse and each of her songs finely tuned. In 2019, the single "Mamasaya" was released, generating nationwide airplay and growing public awareness. With its bittersweet but positive vibe, the single also pointed the way for Caroline's next big step: her debut album "Moonlight", which caused a sensation together with the lead single "Sticks & Stones".

Three successful single releases, numerous media reports and thousands of radio plays later, Caroline Alves achieved in February 2021 what hardly anyone - including her - would have thought possible: as the first woman in 10 years (and the first non-German Swiss ever), she won the Swiss Music Award in the category "SRF 3 Best Talent".

This summer, a next highlight will follow: Caroline Alves will open Coldplay's two sold-out Letzigrund Stadium shows on July 1 and 2 as "Supporting Act"!

Starting at 6:30 p.m., the kitchen crew of the TOPOFF Restaurant will spoil you with hot and cold delicacies. Event start: 8 p.m.
