You will learn about the Baroness and her work, which also shaped the design of the Bonstettengut.

The guest book of Betty Lambert (1894-1969) from the years 1937 to 1960 includes around 1200 people from home and abroad abroad - including many personalities such as Marc Chagall and Greta Garbo or the escape helper Eduardo Propper de Calléjon, the foreign police chief Heinrich Rothmund and the US intelligence chief Allen Welsh Dulles. They and other big names and their own stories are the focus of this on this tour. You will also learn about the baroness and her work, which also shaped the design of the Bonstettengut estate.

Tour of the Bonstettengut (incl. Bonstettenpark, but without the villa) with exclusive information from over five years of research work
