Ghost stories at Thun Castle

Who knows the secret of the soda fountain in the castle courtyard? Is it known that bowling was played in the Knights' Hall in the Middle Ages? Do you know the legend of the White Lady? No? Then it's high time that Junker Gerold tells these and other spooky stories on a night-time tour of the castle. The legends are complemented by historical facts and explanations about the construction and operation of the castle over eight centuries.

Guided by a tour guide, the participants walk together through the darkened castle. In the lantern light, the interiors of the Thun landmark appear quite different from those in daylight. Let yourself be surprised and join in the mystery. Spooky moments are guaranteed. The night-time tour begins at dusk at the soda fountain and lasts 1.5 hours.
