We offer you a variety of fresh and regional dishes as well as a rich spectrum of corresponding drinks.

Venue Description

After extensive refurbishment under strict monument preservation aspects, the former Kaiser-Wilhelm Bad opened its doors as the KWB restaurant in the Stadtpalais in autumn 2019.

First used as a military baths from 1914, it was available to the people of Cologne as the Deutz-Kalker Bad from 1947 to 1996.

The extraordinary location is now available as a restaurant, bar, for celebrations and events for up to 350 people. A combination of historical tradition and modern architecture with a direct connection to the 4-star Hotel Stadtpalais awaits you.

We offer a variety of fresh and regional dishes, complemented by a wide range of corresponding drinks. Of course, we are happy to cater to individual wishes.

Venue catering & gastronomy

Our a-la-carte kitchen is open Tuesdays to Saturdays from 17:30 to 21:30.

Sundays and Mondays are closed! We reserve the right to open on Sundays and Mondays for large events.
