Venue Introduction

Combining the convenience of a city with the beauty of the countryside, the Leonardo Royal Hotel Köln - Am Stadtwald offers an ideal blend of environments from which to explore Cologne and the surrounding area. Situated on the edge of the verdant Stadtwald City Forest, overlooking the Kahnweiher boating lake, the hotel enjoys a serene position in the heart of nature while still being just 5km from Cologne city centre, meaning guests can get the best of both worlds whether they're visiting on business or for pleasure.

Venue Description

Inside, the Leonardo Royal Hotel Köln - Am Stadtwald offers stylish modern interiors and all the modern conveniences you'd expect. As well as a sleek hotel bar and an onsite restaurant serving up delicious meals daily, you'll also find comfortably appointed bedrooms and spectacular views across the nearby boating lake and the forest beyond. Should you be visiting on business, the hotel also has eight dedicated conference rooms and a professional business centre.

Should you wish to venture into the city, there are tram stations and bus stops just three minutes' walk from the hotel that will take you into the centre, where you'll find sights including Cologne Cathedral, the old market square and the Lanxess Arena, as well as the Koelnmesse exhibition centre. And when you tire of the buzzing city, you can return to the peace and tranquillity of the Leonardo Royal Hotel Köln - Am Stadtwald.

Venue catering & gastronomy

Begin the day right at the hotel's generous breakfast buffet, with a range of regional and international dishes on offer. Later, enjoy a Mediterranean-inspired lunch or dinner at the stylish Vitruv restaurant, or visit the sleek Leo bar for a cocktail or a glass of Kölsch, the local beer.
