A different kind of event in the colourful world of graffiti. Stylish, wacky and completely legal

This supporting programme for corporate events is differentARTig. And it's more than just in a can. It's stylish, wacky and completely legal. An internationally renowned graffiti coach and his cool team will take you into the colourful world of graffiti!

The location will be selected according to the theme, if possible in an urban style. Depending on the entrepreneurial objective, incomparable individual works or entire masterpieces are created here. To create a relaxed atmosphere for this urban lifestyle event, a DJ will play stylish music on request. If you wish, you can indulge in trendy street food. See it, feel it, spray it!
