From Interlaken Ost, the trail first leads comfortably along the Aare River and the railway line to Ringgenberg. This is where the steep and challenging mountain trail begins for experienced hikers in good shape. The trail goes up to Blatti through a shady forest to the Graggentor, a natural rock arch. The path to the Alp Horet and on to the Roteflue runs flat over the Wannichnubel along the Harder ridge. The Harder Railway station, the destination of the walk, is no longer far from the Harder Kulm restaurant.
