Examine the moorland of the Lombachalp

Unearth the secrets of the moorland and explore the Lombachalp nature reserve. The research set is ideal for an interesting family day out. Learn more about the little wonders of nature with your children.

Rent a research set from the Jägerstübli restaurant from June to October. The sets are free, subject to a deposit of CHF 20.00. The set contains instructions in German, a magnifying glass and some hydrochloric acid. Study the manual and spend 2-4 hours examining the moorland in great detail. Exploring the nature reserve under your own steam is sure to provide a special, individual experience.
