Discover the history of Thun

The classic town tour! With its diversity, culture, history and breathtaking lakeside location, Thun is an enchanting place to visit. Explore the Zähringen town of Thun from a unique perspective and solve its mysteries on a tour through the old town.

Do you know how Thun's raised pavements were built? Or why two branches of the same river enclose the shopping street of Bälliz? The Thun City Guides will reveal all of this and more on the classic tour of Thun old town and the Schlossberg. You can expect an exciting tour, filled with fascinating details about the town's rich culture, which dates back to the Stone Age and has played out against an exceptional backdrop. Thun's unique location between lakes and Alps has shaped the face of the town both in the past and in the present.

Public tour of the old town

Public guided tours take place on Saturday afternoons from April to November, and on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons in July and August. They are led by a knowledgeable city guide who will share lots of interesting facts about Thun's past and present.
