Experience a slice of alpine life in the Bernese Oberland

Visit Heubühlen Alp at an altitude of 1331 m and above the mountain village of Habkern. Treat yourself in front of the Brunner family's idyllic alpine cabin or relax in the deck chairs with a view of the surrounding mountains.

The walk from Dorfbrunnen Habkern to Heubühlen Alp takes about one hour. The beautiful alpine cabin is managed by the Brunner family during the summer months, from June to September. They provide an insight into alpine life and a chance to see grazing cows and wallowing pigs. Watch cheese being made then buy a fresh alpine cheese on site. The candle-lit raclette and alpine dairyman's breakfast on Heubühlen Alp's terrace are delicious. Then digest your meal as you lie back in a deck chair and enjoy the wonderful view.

Your highlights at a glance

- Enjoy the variety of different "Mütschlis" and cheeses
- Enjoy a traditional dairyman's breakfast with Röstli, fried egg and cheese
- Homemade cakes and desserts to enjoy
- Find out how cheese is made in the Alps
- Relax in one of the alpine cabin's deck chairs
- Admire the beautiful view of the Bernese Alps

To ensure that your trip is perfect in every way, please note

- A pre reservation / pre-booking in advance by telephone is recommended
- The Alp is only open during the summer months
- Bring cash with you to buy cheese and refreshments
- Wear appropriate clothes to suit the weather and good walking shoes
- Arrival by car possible, short walk (850 metres / 140 metres altitude) from the car parking (no direct access to the alp by car)
