Learn more about the history of the town through its historic structures

Discover 28 signposted historic buildings in the centre of Thun. Take a personal tour of town: the multi-lingual information brochure shows you the way to various buildings. Along the way, you will learn much of interest on the history of Thun through its structures.

Did you know you can still find a 13th century town gate complete with archway in Thun, or that Scherzigen church has beautiful paintings dating from the 13th to the 16th centuries? On your historic tour, you will pick up interesting facts on many of the town's majestic buildings. The Berntorscheune, for example, still stands as the last example of an agricultural structure within the town walls; elsewhere you come to the Thunerhof, built as a grand hotel in 1875. If you find this kind of background detail interesting, you will love this history-steeped tour. The convenient brochure lists many absorbing facts on various buildings around the centre of Thun. Stroll around town on your journey through time, and learn more about the buildings of Thun.
