

Botanical excursion into the Suldtal

nature reserves guides places of power summer

Interlaken Tourismus - web@interlaketourismus.ch

Discover fascinating alpine flora

Set off on a morning trip through the idyllic Suldtal. Walk along rocky paths, through deep green forests and across colourful alpine meadows. Encounter fascinating and diverse alpine flora in the heart of the Bernese Oberland.

Are you interested in the diverse range of flora to be found in the Alps? On request Aeschi Tourism offers guided botanical excursions into the beautiful and wild Suldtal led by Niklaus Roder. The excursion starts at the car park in Aeschiried, from where you will travel by car to the furthestmost end of the Suldtal. On a rocky and at times steep path you will hike through forests and over alpine meadows to discover well-known and rare flowers and plants.
