Watch an alphorn being made in real time

Visit alphorn maker Heinz Tschiemer and learn more about how these traditional and typically Swiss music instruments are made. Watch over the alphorn maker's shoulder as he explains the fascinating process, from tree trunk to completed instrument.

The Tschiemer family are based in the cosy mountain village of Habkern. Visit the alphorn museum and shop with its wonderful smell of spruce wood. Are you interested in Swiss alpine shepherd culture and the history behind alphorn's and how they are made? Book a workshop tour to learn more about alphorn manufacture and try to make a sound using this traditional musical instrument. Would you like to buy an alphorn? Heinz Tschiemer can make you an alphorn, tuned to meet your personal requirements.
