Find out more about the village's history and local traditions

Want to know more about the Habkern dialect or how to find caves in the Habkern Valley? At Habkern Village Museum, the history of the village is told through traditional everyday objects, tools and musical instruments, as well as photographs and films.

The museum in the idyllic mountain village of Habkern is located in an old schoolhouse. Find out more about the Habkern Valley's unique geology, traditions, customs and crafts. From the Habkern dialect to timber rafting and weaving, the exhibition is always worth a visit: you can book an authentic tour with a private guide. After your visit, you'll know what "Lischnen" are, where the Habkern Valley's caves are and even be able to understand a little bit of Habkern dialect!
