The official tourist office of Sigriswil Tourism in Sigriswil

Friendliness and a desire to serve - this is the motto of the Sigriswil tourist office which firmly believes you've "just got to like people" and receives its guests in its granary. The team passionately presents the beautiful municipality of Sigriswil, as well as the numerous attractive highlights both in the community and all round Lake Thun. The range of articles sold at the Sigriswil tourist office includes hiking maps and lovely souvenirs to remind you of your holiday in Sigriswil.

The highlights in the Sigriswil tourist office

- The tourist office is in the Adolf Schaer granary, a log cabin from the 18th century
- It is in the middle of the village at the Thun – Schwanden – Beatenberg crossroads
- Bus station, suspension bridge, hotels and restaurants as well as a wide range of shops all close by
