Take a comfortable train trip into the heart of Switzerland

Experience an unforgettable panoramic journey on the GoldenPass Line. This wonderful stretch of railway runs between Lucerne, Interlaken and Montreux. En route, you will gaze upon awe-inspiring mountain peaks and picturesque natural landscapes. Enjoy a luxurious journey on board a panoramic train.

The unique mountain panorama passes by your window like a scene for an epic landscape film. The GoldenPass Line between Lucerne, Interlaken and Montreux offers a view over the stark peaks of the Central Alps, the incomparable Three Peaks of Eiger, Mönch and Jungfrau and the picture-book landscapes of French-speaking Switzerland. Travel on the panoramic train and enjoy an even better view of the breathtaking natural landscape through its expansive windows. In first or second class, as well as a wonderful view, you will also enjoy exceptional comfort. It's a good idea to check the train number in the timetable. Some trains also offer exclusive VIP seats at the front of the train.

Lötschberger and GoldenPass Rail round trip

Combine one part of the GoldenPass Line with the RegioExpress Lötschberger. From Spiez, travel via Kandersteg to Brig. The route from Brig then continues through the Rhone Valley to Montreux on the banks of Lake Geneva. Passing cows in lush green meadows, the GoldenPass carries on to Gstaad and Zweisimmen before you change back to the RegioExpress Lötschberger to head back to the starting point at Spiez.
