Große Süderbäke

The large Süderbäke is a small river course in the municipality of Apen, which, coming from the east, connects the farmers' communities Klampen, Espern, Apermarsch and Apen and merges there into the Aper Tief. There are many opportunities for hiking and fishing along the Bäke, and in some cases there is a cycle path along the dike. Enjoy a beautiful piece of nature in our water-rich municipality of Apen.
