Exhibition of the Foundation for Historical Material of the Swiss Armed Forces

Gain fascinating insights into the equipment used by the Swiss Armed Forces from 1800 to the present day. The HAM foundation procures and safeguards the material heritage of the Swiss Armed Forces on behalf of the Swiss government. The surviving artefacts from the past 200 years are cultural assets of major importance. As well as gathering historical objects, the foundation advocates the conservation, restoration and documentation of artefacts. Take a colourful trip back through history.

You can inspect the precious cultural heritage of the Swiss Armed Forces at various sites. Discover the exhibition on a group tour in Thun Schwäbis and learn a lot about uniforms, insignia as well as surveying equipment and optical equipment. The storage space in Burgdorf displays some 600 historical vehicles, including tanks, wheel-based vehicles, construction vehicles, covered fourgon wagons and carriages.
