Learn how the delicious Swiss speciality is produced

What could be better than a slice of aromatic Swiss cheese? Would you like to know how the production process works, and what is really behind the Swiss speciality? The visitor center "Simmentaler Käsewelt" offers you a look behind the scenes. Pick up interesting facts on the regional and sustainable production operation with a tour of the facility.

The visitor center "Simmentaler Käsewelt" is located at the foot of the Niesen in Diemtigtal Nature Park. Here, prime regional ingredients are processed into aromatic cheese in a labour of love. A visitors' tour offers fascinating insights into milk processing and cheese production at the modern manufacturing centre and maturation cellar. Learn more about the products and the partners behind the project.

Enjoy the absorbing sight of professionals at work through large windows in the cheese dairy. Information boards and screens give visitors all the facts they need on the Swiss speciality. In the cheese manufacturing centre, you will see modern robots manipulating the cheese – something you don't see every day! At the end of the tour, call in at the bistro to treat your taste buds to a fresh slice of Simmentaler cheese.

Planning a team event or group excursion?

The visitor center "Simmentaler Käsewelt" welcomes groups of 20 to 100 participants. Those joining the tour gain exclusive insights into the history of the Käsewelt as well as the production process. From small-scale visitor packages with company presentation and tour to three-course taste experiences, everything is possible – agendas are tailored to the requirements of guests.
