Enjoy the unique view of turquoise Lake Brienz while trekking with llamas

You hike through the wonderful nature of the Bernese Oberland, enjoying an unforgettable view over turquoise Lake Brienz and the surrounding mountain panorama. Walk the route together with your guide and the friendly llamas. Book your trek and let nature and these sweet llamas cast their spell over you.

Llamas are known for their calm, gentle, good-natured character. While on the trek, enjoy the laid-back atmosphere and let your spirit relax. Surrounded by nature, it's easy to switch off and recharge your batteries. The wonderful view of the mountains and Lake Brienz makes this experience even more special. The extensive offer of the Llama Ranch Brienz guarantees an unforgettable outing for people of all ages. Llama trekking is a popular activity for group trips and children's birthdays too. While grooming and saddling up, you'll get to know these exceptional animals, forming a bond that will stay with you forever. On the trip, you'll notice how you harmonise with the animals; you can also put into practice what your guide has taught you.

Llama trekking with fondue or raclette

Design your own bespoke route along with your guide. The hikes usually last between four and six hours. During this time, you'll get to know the llamas better. On a relaxing break, you can enjoy a delicious fondue or raclette, complete with view! To experience the hike minus heavy bags and to help you focus on the animals, your bag is fastened to a special carrying device.

Llama day trekking

Day trekking lasts between five and six hours and starts with grooming and saddling up the soft, fluffy animals. Here, you'll get to know the animals and your guide will tell you lots of fascinating facts about them. Your bag is attached to the specially-designed carrying device so you don't have to lug it around. You also have the option of a barbecue while trekking. Please book in advance, so that the grillades can be prepared for you.
