Oper Frankfurt has been named "Opera House of the Year" several times and is making a name for itself in the international opera world with outstanding singers, great directorial teams and innovative programming. With around thirteen premieres and fifteen revivals per season, audiences can expect a varied program: from baroque operas to world premieres, from workshops for children to discussions with the artists - Oper Frankfurt affords a broad spectrum of more than 300 events per season.

Artistic Director and Managing Director Bernd Loebe has been shaping the artistic profile of the opera house since 2002/2003. General Music Director Sebastian Weigle, the soloist and guest ensemble, the opera choir and the Frankfurt Opera and Museum Orchestra form the basis for musical performances at an outstanding level. With the 2023/2024 season, the young conductor Thomas Guggeis will bring the music to life as the new General Music Director.

Frankfurt owes stellar moments of musical theater to the principle of engaging the stars of tomorrow alongside the big names of today. Promoting young talent in the audience as well as on stage is a matter of concern to Oper Frankfurt. Guided tours of the stage, children's operas and family performances ensure that visitors will continue to come in the years to come.
