If you prefer quiet and want to relax from everyday life, the Allmend nature recreation area is the right place for you.

The Allmend nature recreation area is considered one of the most valuable natural areas in the city, which is not far from the city centre.

Dry and wet meadows, streams, ponds and hedges await visitors. Due to the diverse habitats, it is a popular home for rare insects, reptiles and smaller mammals. The area can be discovered on walking and stalking trails. The many experience stations between the ponds and meadows offer exciting insights into nature.
