

Vögeligärtli

Vögeligärtli - © Luzern Tourismus, Laila Bosco

Here, the name says it all - at least it did until a few decades ago. The name "Vögeligärtli" comes from the former aviary that filled the green space with birdsong.

Today, the park has become a meeting place for all generations. Anyone strolling past the Vögeligärtli will come across children doing gymnastics on the playground, families chatting, students reading on the picnic lawn or an intergenerational chess tournament. The park is right next to the railway station.
