Authentic art from their homes, performed with heart and soul: This is what artists and ensembles from over 25 cultures offer at The International Theatre Frankfurt.

Every year they stage 150 events. They provide a piece of home to their fellow countrymen and a window to the world for all other theatergoers. The program ranges widely: It covers the spectrum from German and foreign language drama to concert and dance – from flamenco to tango, from classical music to jazz, from traditional klezmer and new Jewish music to chanson, fado and more. Movies, readings and exhibitions round off the schedule. It is this artistic and cultural diversity which characterizes the International Theatre and makes it stand out as a unique center for the arts.
